

Türkiye İş Bankası A.Ş. Announces Sale of Its Branch in Kosova

Türkiye İş Bankası A.Ş., a leading financial institution in Türkiye, announces the sale of its Branch's assets and liabilities in Kosova to a local financial institution Banka Ekonomike SH. A.

We express our sincere gratitude to local institutions for their continuous support and cooperation throughout the journey of our Branch in Kosova. Their unwavering commitment and partnership have played a crucial role in our success, fostering a robust and dynamic business environment. The trust and cooperation we have experienced have not only contributed to our growth but have also reinforced the broader economic landscape. We are truly grateful for the valuable relationships we have built and the collective progress we have shaped. The strength and stability of the local business environment in Kosova remain unchanged, but the decision to sale the branch is purely a strategic move by our Board of Directors. This decision aligns with our strategic goal to diversify investments while entering our second century.

We would also like to thank our dedicated staff in Kosovo for their professionalism and valuable contribution throughout the years. Their support has been essential to our success and will remain key during this transition.

To our valued customers, we assure you that this transition is being handled with the highest level of professionalism and diligence to ensure uninterrupted and seamless service. We want to reassure our customers that their assets will remain secure and unaffected throughout this transition. Both Türkiye İş Bankası A.Ş. Branch in Kosova and Banka Ekonomike SH. A. are dedicated to upholding the highest standards of customer asset protection, complying with all relevant consumer protection law and regulations to safeguard your funds and investments. Additionally, Banka Ekonomike SH. A. as a reputable and stable local bank is eager to establish and nurture long-term relationships with all our customers and committed to providing consistent support for your financial needs. Our clients do not need to take any action at this stage since they will be contacted individually by the Banks.

Türkiye İş Bankası A.Ş., as the leading private bank in Türkiye, with a strong foundation and extensive expertise remains fully committed to ensure a smooth transition throughout the sale process. During this period, the Branch in Kosova will receive unwavering financial, operational and technical support to guarantee stability and uninterrupted service for all its customers.
